

Exeter City Council and Devon County Council are proud to present a unique commemorative event for

Holocaust Memorial Day

2018

Inherit the Truth

an evening of words and music reflecting the events of the Holocaust, with Raphael Wallfisch and Anita Lasker-Wallfisch

- Exeter Cathedral
- 7pm on Thursday 1st February 2018
- Free event, with places allocated to pupils from schools across Devon, and to members of minority communities

We are seeking funding to support this unique event. If you would be interested in offering financial support, with an option of a named 'thank-you' printed in the programme, please contact ed.pawson@exeter.anglican.org for further details

Anita Lasker-Wallfisch, one of the few surviving members of the Women's Orchestra in Auschwitz, will speak about how art can survive the of worst human atrocities

Raphael Wallfisch is Anita's son and a celebrated musician. He will play a recital of evocative and sublime cello music, influenced by his Jewish heritage

This event demonstrates solidarity with, and support for vulnerable groups in our communities today. Remembrance of the Holocaust and other genocides reminds us that equality, respect and inclusion are vital ingredients of an open, democratic society.
