

Devon Faith and Belief Forum invites you to an Interfaith Week 2024 event

Why is interfaith understanding so important in today's world?

Eleanor will be teasing out ideas about 'interfaith understanding'. This means the understanding of other faiths as well as developing understanding between faiths/ individuals of faith. She will point to the possibility of developing a personal understanding which is itself 'interfaith' ie dynamically inclusive. She will note some of the ways in which this has mattered in the past, and why it is important today.

Guest speaker

Eleanor Nesbitt

- 3.00 - 4.30 pm
- Sat 9th Nov 2024
- The Mint, Fore Street, Exeter
- Free admission and refreshments
- Book your tickets here or through the DFBF website <https://devonfaiths.org.uk>

Eleanor Nesbitt is a Quaker with Anglican roots and a Hindu family. Her publications include Interfaith Pilgrims (2003), Sikhism: A Very Short Introduction (2nd edition 2016) and Open to New Light: Quakers and Other Faiths (2023)! She is a professor emeritus at the University of Warwick.