

Exeter Interfaith Talks Programme 2026

The Exeter Interfaith group invites you to a set of free talks taking place at the Mint Methodist Church, Fore Street, Exeter EX4 3AT. Meetings are on Tuesdays, 5.15-6.45pm.

We start with tea and cake and update each other with news on recent and upcoming religion and belief events and festivals.

We encourage speakers to keep their talks quite short, lasting about 20 minutes, leaving at least 20 minutes for questions and discussion.

For more information contact exeterinterfaithandbeliefgroup@gmail.com

6th January

Exploring contrasting Jewish and Christian interpretations of the Genesis 1 creation narratives
Ed Pawson

3rd February

Unitarianism: what's that?
Edgar Mihas

3rd March

What is Buddha-nature?
Billie Snowden

7th April

Promoting interfaith dialogue and cooperation. This session will explore the Sea of Faith Network's 'Ten Hypotheses', designed to provoke discussion!
Dave Francis and Denise Cush

5th May

My journey into Islam - the story of a white British revert
Sharon Luck

2nd Jun

Exploring aspects of the Hindu tradition
Jay Jina

7th July

The 'Accidental Humanist' – how it took me three decades to find a label for myself!
Lisa Robillard Webb

1st September

An introduction to Baha'i: progressive revelation and building a united global community
Warren Houghton

6th October

Representing Christianity: a Cross-Cultural Perspective
Victoria Omotosa

3rd November

The sacred feminine: an exploration across different spiritual traditions.
Cathy Potter

1st December

Is Christmas a Christian, pagan or secular festival?
Various